

Greetings:

I am pleased to offer this letter of recommendation for Brandon McCloskey, who has built a couple of websites for me.

Brandon is a very polite and efficient gentleman to work with. Even without my knowing much about what I wanted, he was able to make it all come together beautifully. He was always able to meet deadlines, and delivered the work with a smile! He offered suggestions that I can tell he put a lot of thought into, on how to improve upon my ideas. He always kept things within my web design budget, and asked about things when he hit something we wasn't sure of my thoughts on. His love for what he does can be seen through his exemplary work ethic and the amazing work he delivers.

I believe you will find Brandon to be an excellent Web designer and a strong support to any project you may have him working on.

Sincerely,

Annastasia McPherson
CEO, Knockout Republic