To whom it may concern,

I have known and worked with Brandon Mckloskey for almost 2 years, and I can testify that he is a person of integrity and good character. I have used his services as a web designer and developer, his professionalism, technical skills, dedication, and honesty have been outstanding in every aspect of our business relationship.

I am very proud to know and recommend Brandon for any job position, or business endeavor that he may pursue in the near future with any organization.

Sincerely yours,
