Brandon A. McCloskey

"Web Design by Brandon McCloskey",

It is with pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Brandon McCloskey, owner of "Web Design by Brandon McCloskey" as you know I have had a difficult time getting my business finally up and running and have recently experienced problems with other web design providers.

As soon as I found out that you went into the business of web design, I knew right off the bat that your knowledge, experience and skills would best benefit my needs for Critical Intervention Patrol. Since the completion and publication of my website, I have been only getting positive feedback and calls for the continued expansion of my company. Once again I value your service and expedition with the service you have provided to me.

Best regards,
